4. INSPECTIONS AND TESTS

“For products meeting the specified criteria, bidders may submit valid and current certifications or third-party test reports in lieu of physical samples. SLAF reserves the right to independently verify any submitted certifications or test reports and may request physical samples at any stage of the evaluation process. If certifications are not provided, bidders must submit relevant compliance documentation, such as product brochures, for review with the bid. Upon receipt of the confirmed order, the bidder must deliver the goods with certifications that remain valid at the time of delivery, along with warranty certificates, if applicable. Additionally, SLAF reserves the right to request further verification or retesting of the goods upon receipt at the bidder’s cost, prior to final acceptance, if deemed necessary. If the sample fails laboratory testing, testing fees borne by the bidder will be reimbursed by the SLAF.”
